$10 GOLD

Many of the newer and some of the older collectors have not followed the coin market too closely and do not as yet realize the rapid strides the eagles and double eagles have taken during the last year and especially the last six months. We expect to see choice uncirculated eagles bring $50 and up within the near future. Don't wait too long to complete your series. WE HAVE A STANDING BID OF $29 EACH FOR VERY FINE EAGLES AND $31.50 EACH FOR UNCIRCULATED EAGLES. THIS BID HAS BEEN PLACED WITH US BY A COLLECTOR WHO BELIEVES IN THE FUTURE OF GOLD COINS. Collectors having duplicate gold coins, who wish to take advantage of the standing offer of the above collector, may enter their gold coins in our auctions at a commission of only 10 per cent. Consignments must have a minimum retail value of $300.

$20 GOLD

The sharp rise in prices of this series during the last seven months has been really amazing, especially the scarcer dates. We receive more want lists on double eagles than we do on any other series of gold. Choice uncirculated double eagles will probably bring over $100 each within the near future. WE HAVE A STANDING BID OF $60 EACH FOR VERY FINE AND $65 EACH FOR UNCIRCULATED DOUBLE EAGLES. IT IS THEREFORE USELESS TO BID LESS. At the present rate of rise in price today's prices will appear to be bargains within the next few months.

MARKET COMMENTS

With this sale we inaugurate a new feature, comments about different phases of the coin market. This feature is in answer to the many requests we have received in regards to what is going up; how long will the market continue rising; do we think the market will crash; is this the time to buy or sell, etc. We shall do our best to give answers to these questions based upon the knowledge received from our monthly coin auctions, approval department, buying department and our traveling representative.

1. What is going up the fastest? At present, gold coins are in great demand. In fact the demand far exceeds the supply. Every time a "name collection" is sold at auction, many new price records are set. Even the so-called common dates have risen 20 per cent during the last month (May). So far as we can determine there are 10 times as many gold collectors today as there were three years ago. There are still a number of "sleepers" in the gold series, especially in the double eagles as not many were saved when the gold was called in. No records were kept of those melted and now with the increased demand new ones are being discovered to be in short supply. Many gold coins are now bringing far in excess of the catalog price, some even bring 10 or more times the catalog. For instance, we recently sold a 1930-S eagle in uncirculated condition for $450.00. This coin catalogs $45 and we are now advertising to pay $350.00 for another uncirculated specimen. Last year the gold dollars were the most popular of the gold series, now the double eagles and three dollars have taken the limelight. When the amount issued and available is taken into consideration with the demand and relatively small premiums the gold coins bring in comparison to minor coins, collectors should readily realize why gold coins have risen so sharply of late. If proof minor coins of which 500 to 1,000 were struck bring up to $75, then proof gold, of which only 20 or 30 were struck, are cheap at $1,000.

Another factor making for higher prices is the drop in the buying power of the dollar, in other words, inflation. The further along inflation goes, the higher in price goes tangible property such as stamps, coins, real estate, houses, etc. This factor is in addition to the tremendous increase in demand caused by the influx of new coin collectors. Just look at the amount of new members joining the A.N.A. now compared to the number who joined two or three years ago. Coins are being spread very thin to take care of the demand created by the new collectors. Dealers' stocks are very low, especially in proof and uncirculated material.

To be continued next month. Comments and criticisms both favorable and unfavorable in regards to this new feature, "Market Comments," will be appreciated,
